I Have here made publick to the World,
some of my choicest Secrets in the Art of Physick, which I, had once thought never to publish; but the importunities of the publick Good, has so prevailed with me, above my private Interest, to serve my Age and Station in which I live. Be kind and good to your poor Neighbour, for which you may expect the Blessing of God:
and in so doing you will compel me to oblige
the World with several other useful things, which I shall fit to the common Capacity of all People. I am

French Pox.

If Buboës appear, then let him not Blood by any means. But no Buboës appearing, then let him Blood in the beginning in the Vein called Hepatica in the right Arm. Then empty the Body by degrees of all the Evil, Venomous and Malicious Humours, for which none are better than Extractum Rudij in Pills; or Mercurius Dulcis proportionably made up in the said Extractum, will do far better: But if that do not succeed, then if necessity require, you must empty the Humours by Fluxing.

Pills to Flux in the Cure of the French Disease.

Take Sagapenum dissolved in white Wine 2 ounces, Salt of Guaiacum, Colocynthis, Diagridij, of each of them 1 ounce, Turbith Minerale 10 drachms, Musk 1 scruple, Oyl of July-flowers 12 grains; make them into a Mass; the dose is from 12 grains to 20 grains, for ten days together in the morning, or until the Patient sufficiently doth Flux at the Mouth.

If his Throat or Mouth be sore, to Cure.

Take one penny worth of red Sage, French barley two handfulls, Roch Allom in Powder 2 Ounces, with Mint and Take roses half a handful of each, boyl them all in one quart of water, then strain it, and while it is hot dulcify the Colature with hony : With this warmed, wash, gargle, and syringe the Mouth and Throat twice or thrice a day. If Pustules, Scabs and Sores break out, heal with this ointment.

Take Unguent. Egyptiacum one Ounce, mingle it with one drachm of Mercurius Sublimate, and anoint therewith : and if it smart beyond Suffering, then take plantain Water, fumitory Water, and Rose Water, of each alike mingle them, and touch the smarting part with it, and it will assuage the pain.

If Nodes, or knobs, or wheals appear, then use this.

Take plantain and Rose Waters of each 1 pint, roch Allom and Sublimate of each 2 drachms, bray the two last into powder, put them together into a pipkin, boyl them till half the Water be consumed, then let it settle, and cant off the clear into a glass : and when you use it, mingle some of it with a tripple portion of plantain and Rose Water together, and then touch them therewith : And if they be on the face then first anoint them with Oyl of Scorpions, or the fat of a henn.

To preserve the Nose.

Take waters of Rose, violet and plantain of each alike a little wine Vineger, roch Allom in powder a little, and a little hony, dissolve them over the fire, and let the patient snuff up strongly into the Nose ; this cures and heals.

If the teeth be loose, fasten them with this.

Take plantain water, mix it with Oyl of Sulphur, and touch therewith the Gums, and after they be mundified, wash well thy Teeth and Gums with thy lotion aforesaid.

If a Bubo appear in the groin, Cure it thus.

Take Emplastr. Paracels. diachylon Magnum, flos Unguentorum, diachylon cum gummi, Emplastr. Mucilaginis, Emplastrum de Melilot. of each alike, then incorporate corporate them together over a gentle fire, then make plasters on sheeps leather, and apply it to the Bubo morning and evening warm.

And when it is broken, use the same plaster, only add to it in the melting more of Flos Unguentorum and Emplastrum Betonicæ more than the rest, and that will draw it and heal it, only at the close use Emplastr. Gratiæ Dei, and that will close up the botch well.

Now when all the evil humors are prepared, purged and emptied, you must come to your dyet drink.

The first simple decoction.

Take (In Winter) one Pound and a half of Guaiacum 18 pints of Water; but in Summer (when it will not keep so long) Guaiacum 6 Ounces, and water 6 Pints, in both which the wood must be infused 12 hours or more. Let the water for the infusion be warm, almost seething hot, and keep the pot close stopped, let the decoction boyl till half be wasted: so much for the first decoction: always remembring, to save the Scum or Froth, for that is good to anoint the Pustules and Scabs.

To make the second Decoction.

Take the same wood without infusing any more, and boyl it again in the same quantity of Water to the consumption of a third part.

The quantity of these is to be taken according to the strength of the party from 4 Ounces to eight Ounces, and in a Child from 4 Ounces to six Ounces, and not exceeding ten Ounces when the disease is most rebellious, and always must be taken very hot, and sleep upon it if you can.

The first Decoction you must take first and last; and the second Decoction, at and between Meals: some take this decoction 30 days, some 40, some 60 days, to make the more surer Cure.

Their Meat must be roasted dry at Noon, and their Sup-

Supper must be sweet Almonds, Raisins of the Sun stoned, and fine Bisket, or Bread made of the finest Flower.

And let him forbear Venery as he tenders his Life, and all chafing, fretting, and impatency, for that inflames the Blood, stirs up Cholerick Humours, and is a great Enemy to the Cure.

To Cure the said French Disease a more private way, with great Secrecy.

To Salivate without Fluxing.

TAKE 2 drachms of Mercurius Sublimatus, put it to infuse in 1 quart of warmed Spring-water 24 Hours; then take 2 spoonfuls of that Infusion, and mix it with 2 spoonfuls of crude Spring-water, and give it to the Patient every Morning Fasting; and this will cause him to Salivate at the Mouth, and yet go about his Business: Then

It will Work in half an Hour.

Take Extractum Rudij, Pil. Aggregativ. of each 3 drachms, Pil. Tartar. Pil. Coch. Pil. Fumar. of each two drachms, Mercurius Dulcis 3 drachms, Oyl of Guaiaicum 18 drops; make 40 or more Pills, and take 3, 4, or 5 Pills at a time, every other Night going to Bed. And use this Diet in his Salivating and Purging times.

His Diet.

Let the Patient sometime eat Broth made of Mutton, or knuckles of Veal or Mutton (without Oat-meal) only a crust of Bread boil'd with the Meat; his Drink must be small, and sometimes sweetned with Sugar, to streng-strengthen the Stomach; and when he is Faintish, gi. him a little burnt Claret, and a rear Egg extraordinary in the Morning, another at Noon, and one at Night. And after for his Diet Drink.

A marvellous good Diet Drink to Cure the foul Disease.

Take 6 gallons of the purest white Wine, as much stale Ale, Salsaparilla 1 pound and half, Liquorice and Senna 1 pound of each, of the Bark of Guaiacum 2 pounds, Coliquintida 1 ounce, boil altogether for the space of 24 Hours, over a soft Fire in Balneo Mariæ, and when it is so boiled, put therein 1 ounce of Mithridate; then take it off, and put it into some earthen Pot, and stop it close; then take a little earthen Cruise, and draw it full out of the steyn, and so drink the Cruise full, first and last, and at Noon; and this will cleanse both the inward and outward parts, and make you very sound ever after.

Another Diet Drink for the same, more cheaper.

Take Guaiacum half a pound, Sarsaparilla 2 ounces, the Bark of Guaiacum half an Ounce, Polypodium of the Oak 2 drachms, Anniseeds, Fennelseeds well bruised, of each 2 ounces, Raisins of the Sun stoned 2 handfuls, a little stick of Liquorice bruised; let these be infused in a gallon and half of Spring-water, and let them boil to the consumption of 2 quarts; then boyling hot add to it 4 ounces of Senna, and half an ounce of Rhubarb, and when it is cold strain it, and drink half a pint every Morning Fasting.

If the Party be Costive, this will make him Laxative.

Take Manna 1 Ounce, Syrup of Roses with Agarick 1 ounce, Confectio Hamech 2 drachms, mingle them into a draught in half a pint of white Wine, warmed over the Coals, and take it Fasting.

A notable Plaster to resolve and spend away all Nodes, if taken in time, before they are confirmed, and the Bone foul.

Take of Mercury 8 ounces, Lead 6 ounces, melt the Lead first in a Crucible, and after a little cooling, put in the the Mercury to the lead, and shake them well together in the crucible, and when it is cold take thereof 6 ounces, Turbith mineral 1 ounce, Cinnabar 3 ounces, beat them in an iron Mortar till they come to a fine powder; then have in readines Gum Ammoniacum dissolved in distilled Vineger thirty ounces, the fat of vipers 4 ounces, and (for delicate Persons, Musk four scruples) mix them altogether alike, and apply it to the Nodes plaster-wise.

And within a week or fortnight of his Cure, you must have him into a hot house twice or thrice a week, to perfect his Cure.

Note, In this sickness, let the patient beware of taking cold in that place: And beware of costiveness, and keep your arse and buttocks warm; And sit not upon the cold earth, nor upon the stones, nor upon a hard thing, but put something under thy buttocks.

Against the falling of the Fundament.

Take Unguent. sumach, when the fundament is fallen, anoint it therewith, then put it up, and it will out no more.

Others for the same.

You may do the like with Bole Ammoniack, and with dragons blood, and with Myrrh every one by themselves, brought into fine powder.

Another for the same.

Take Olibanum in powder, and strew it on the tuell fallen down, and then put it up.

Face.

Face.

To take away Spots, Morpheus, Freckles, and Sun-burning from the Face, Neck, Arms and Hands.

TAke of the Juice of Lemmons 2 Ounces, Rose-water, Mercurius sublimatus in Powder, 2 Drachms, Ceruss in Powder 2 Drachms; put it all together, then add to it, Borax 2 Drachms, Camphire 1 Drachm, both in Powder; mix them well together into an Ointment, with which anoint your Face going to Bed, and let it dry on. And in the Morning, wash thy Face with Butter and Rosewater mingled together. Probat.

To Cure a Swelled Face.

Take wild Crabs, gathered on Midsummer-day, and distilled in a Limbeck, and with the distilled Water of them, wash thy Face often, and the intent will follow.
Probatum.

To take away all Freckles, Pimples, Spots, Redness, &c.

Take Unguentum Citrinum, and anoint the part goin to Bed, and it will take them away.

A rare Secret to preserve the Beauty of the Face, Neck, Hands, Arms, &c.

Take Spanish Wine 9 times distilled, to every Quart, put 2 Ounces and half of sweet Benjamin in Powder; it is made in twelve Hours thus: Wash your Bottles clean, and let them be well dried; put in your Wine and Benjamin, and for two or three Hours shake them well together, then let it settle, and so use it thus; put a Spoonful or two of it into a Basin of fair Water, and it will turn it like Milk, with which wash; for it is the most excellent thing in the World to the purposes aforesaid, and of the rareness of the Secret, is commonly sold for 20 s. a Pint.

For a white Scurf, or any extraordinary Pimples, Perls, or fiery Colour in the Face.

Take a pint of White-Wine Vinegar, dissolve in it one Ounce of Camphire, of Roch Alume one quarter of an Ounce, and a little Bay Salt, and let them stand together well stopp'd in a Glasse, fourteen Days, then wash the part therewith. This helped a Gentlewoman's Face,

Health to preserve.

How to provide in hot Countrys.

WHEN you travel into hot Countrys, you must observe that Diet which is prescribed in a Fever, that is, not to over eat themselves; use the Juice of Lemons, Rice, white Wine mixed with Endive-water and Vinegar, Cyder, Raisins, Currants, sugar'd Water, and such fresh Meats (moderately) as may be had. Avoid drinking of Sack, Sack, Aqua-vitæ, and other hot Drinks, except under the Æquinoctial, or where the Nights are cold; and to provide Oyl rather than Butter, and not to be unprovided of Treacle, that is very good.

How to provide in cold Countries.

Those which Sail into cold Countries may feed more liberally, and drink hot drinks safely, because the circundant Air is colder, and so it driveth the heat into the inward parts of the Body, where it fortifies the virtue of Concoction, and helpeth Nature to digest as liberally as it were Winter. I commend ~~us~~ them also, the use of Tobacco with Oyl of Anniseeds (provided they be not of too hot a temper that take it.) And I could wish Seamen to Ballast their Ships with Turneps in Sand, and therein they will be preserved, for Turneps are passing good against the Scurvy, and will defend the Body from such Diseases, as the brackish Air and Diet engender.

Itch and Scabs.

A Purge for the inward Cause.

Take first Confectio Hamech 1 ounce, dissolve it in half a Porringer of white Wine over the Fire in the Morning, and drink it fasting. This Purge will take away the inward cause, and purge the Blood.

Against the Itch.

Then take Oyl of Roses half a pint, Flower of Brimstone 4 ounces, Mercurius Sublimate 6 grains, Camphore half a Scruple; labour them well together in a marble or in a stone Mortar, and anoint the Body therewith Morning and Evening.

To heat all Itches and Scabs.

Take Plantain-water, Rose-water, of each half a pint, of Mercurius Sublimate 2 drachms, crude Allom 6 drach. powder what is to be powdered, then mix them and boil them in a double Vessel at a soft Fire, for the space of an Hour, then filter it, and use it.

To kill the Itch.

Take 1 ounce of crude Mercury, boil it in 2 quarts of Spring-water, till 1 pint be consumed, then separate the Quicksilver from the VWater, then scratch open the Scabs, and wash them with this VWater, and be whole.

To Cure all Scabs, Itch, Tetters, Ring-worms, Shingles, and running Sores in any parts of the Body.

Take 4 ounces of Plantain VWater, 8 ounces of the Brine of Powdered Beef; then boil them together, and scum it clear; then open the Sores, and bathe with this VWater, and rub it well in with your Hand. This Cures. Probatum.

Issues to make. ;

Fentanells.

Take Rye-flower and Mustard-seed, of each alike, beat them well together to a fine Powder, and with VWater make some of it into a Past; then lay a Ring made of a Rush, and lay it on the place where you will have your Issue, there fill the Ring with Past, and bind it on.

Faur-

Jaundies Black and Yellow.

For the yellow Jaundies most Excellent, in great Extremity.

Take English saffron two penny worth, of Turmerick and Mace, of each the same quantity, beat them all into fine powder, together, with an indifferent quantity of Rheubarb in powder, them mingle all with as much fine Sugar, as will please your tast, and first and last eat thereof as much as three nuts in the pap of an Apple.

For the Jaundies.

Take fumitory, and wormwood of each one handful, boyl them in posset drink or whey, and being strained, drink of it four ounces first and last.

Another for the yellow Jaundies.

Take one drachm of the Seeds of Columbines, finely powdered, and drink it in wine with a little saffron in powder, the same, and sweat two hours, this opens all Obstructions of the Liver also.

For the same.

Take Southernwood half a handful, white Wine three pints, boyl it to a third, and drink thereof six days together.

For the black Jaundies.

Take earth worms, slit them and wash them well in white Wine, then so dry them, that you may beat them to powder, whereof a spoonful taken in any liquor in the Morning fasting, in a little time it Cureth.

For the Jaundies a quick Cure.

Take plantain water 1 pint, ivory in powder 2 drachms

drachms, Saffron enough to make it yellow, boyl them 2 walms, then strain it, and drink first and last 4 ounces at a time.

Kings Evil.

Ointment for the Kings Evil.

TAke Oyl of Bays (not adulterated with Hoggsgrease) 8 ounces, Olibanum, Mastick, Gum Ara-bick, Rosin of the Fir tree 3 ounces of each: distil them, afterwards distil them again with Potashes, and anoint the part.

A Drink for the Evil.

Take White Archangel one good handful, two quarts of Conduit Water, one Ounce of sweet Fennel-seed, half an Ounce of Liquorish clean scraped, boil them to the consumption of half, then let it cool, and being settled, take the clearest, and mix it with two Ounces of Honey of Roses, then make three Draughts first and last.

To Dress the Outward Sores of the Evil.

Take a quantity of Verjuice and fresh Butter, dissolve the Butter in the Verjuice, and wash the Sores well, then lay on the Leaden Plaster (specified in the Title Plaster in this Book) wash them well Morning and Evening.

A Balsom against the Evil Outwardly.

Take half a pint of distilled hot Worm-wood Water, put it in a double Glass Bottle of a pint, set it over a few small Cole in a Chafing-dish, and when it begins to warm, put to it half an Ounce of the best Myrrh finely powdered, then let it boil a pretty while, then put to it one Ounce and half of Mel Rosarum, then let it boil one quarter

quarter of an hour more, then take it off, and when it leaves boiling, it is enough.

First, With Linnen Cloaths wipe well the Sores, till they be very dry, then take some Lint, and dip it into the Balsam being Blood warm, and bind them on the Sores twice a day; and use this Dyet Drink following.

A Dyet Drink to Cure the Kings-Evil.

Take Agrimony, Betony, Liverwort, Self-heal, Comfrey, Bramble Tops, Carduus, Wild Tansie, Daiesy Leaves and Roots, Plantain Leaves and Roots, Scabious, Sanicle, Maiden-hair, Mouse-ear, Poypodium, and Hemp-feed, half a handful of each, boil them in a gallon of Water, to the consumption of a third part; then put to it three pints of White Wine, then boil them one quarter of an hour, then strain it and put it into the same Vessel again, with two ounces of the best Senna, Rheubarb halfan ounce, four drachms of Jallop, and six ounces of Honey, and let them boil a walm or two, then stop the Pipkin close and lute it, and let infuse all night over a few Embers: the next day (being cold) strain it and keep it in Bottles; Drink a Wine Glas full in the morning, and fast two hours after it; then drink a little Broth or Posset-drink clear.

If it be sower before spent, boil it three or four walms with a little more Honey, and having first well washed the Bottle, put in your Drink into the same again. This purgeth out all the Evil Humours in the Body; and the Balsam aforesaid, and this Dyet Drink, will absolutely Cure Strumæ, i.e. The Kings Evil, as hath been often proved.

For the Evil.

Take English Tobacco, stamp it and apply it Plaster-wise to the grieved part, it helpeth it in nine or ten daies very effectually.
